DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 3-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential steps, such omission amounting to a gap between the steps. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted steps are: the step of boring the valve is missing from the method claims. The current claims recite the step of providing the drill and locating the cutter heads but the actual step or steps of "forming a bore of a valve" have been omitted.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by 5,957,633 to Hall. Hall discloses a drilling bar having a first set of cutter heads (36) spaced about a first diameter and a second set of cutter heads (52) spaced about a second and larger diameter of the bar (fig 8); wherein the cutter heads are diametrically opposite each other for balancing forces upon the drilling bar

Art Unit: 3722

(inherently capable of balancing function) and the method of providing the drilling bar is inherently taught by Hall.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. This is simply art of interest and was not used to reject any claims in this office action.
